Description

Located in Altos de la Tahona, the neighborhood with the highest growth of private neighborhoods.

Project designed all on one floor, located in a central lot of the neighborhood and facing north.

The house has a semi-integrated social area with a living room and kitchen with a social bathroom. The kitchen has the possibility of being integrated into the dining room or being designed for a family with children. The intimate area of the house is made up of three bedrooms, two of them share a bathroom and the master suite.

The project is just beginning and eight months of work are estimated. But it is already possible to go to the neighborhood to see the lot, and to chat with the architect who created the project.
