Description

Charming house in Arenas de José Ignacio, strategically located near the town of José Ignacio and the Garzón bridge. This property has an unbeatable location, combining the natural beauty of the surroundings with the proximity to the sea, where you can listen to the relaxing sound of the waves. In addition, light pollution is practically non-existent, which allows you to enjoy the stars in all their splendor at night.

This house leaves nothing to be desired, as it can be enjoyed at any time of the year. It has underfloor heating and a cozy wood-burning stove for winters, while in summer you can enjoy a large barbecue area and a pool with incredible views of the forests.

In addition, the garden of this property has a professional irrigation system, ensuring that the green is always present and in perfect condition.

The location of this house is also ideal for lovers of gastronomy, since it is very close to the best restaurants in José Ignacio and its surroundings.

If you are looking to connect with nature and the sea in an incomparable way, this house is perfect for you. Whether it is to live, spend the holidays or as a safe investment with profitability in seasons and winter, this property has everything you need. Don't miss your chance to make this your new home.
