Description

Pueblo de Mar is a tourist and single-family housing complex that is developed on a 20-hectare property with large green spaces and incredible views of the coast. A frontage of 180 meters above the sea is its natural limit, allowing all owners to have direct access to the beach.

Both the architecture and the location of the town are designed to generate a harmonious space with the environment, prioritizing the bond between people and the nature of the place. The town is accessed through a direct entrance with 24-hour control and surveillance. on the Interspa Route.

AMENITIES - HOTEL & SPA

The complex will have a high-level Hotel & Spa, which residents will also be able to enjoy, with lounges and facilities to hold different types of events, such as congresses, conferences, weddings and various social and business events. An ideal place to meet nature, without losing the comfort and quality of service that our hotel will offer. All residents and guests of Pueblo de Mar will be able to use the following services and facilities

Unmissable just 30 minutes from the long-awaited Punta del Este.
