Description

Property to be recycled in the Prado, very good location, with a classic period construction with 191 m2 built.

The house is divided into 3 individual apartments with independent entrance, and each of them contains an independent kitchen and bathroom.

At the end of the construction of the house we found a garage for several cars with a light roof.

At the back of the property there is another construction (after barbecue) where another apartment is developed.

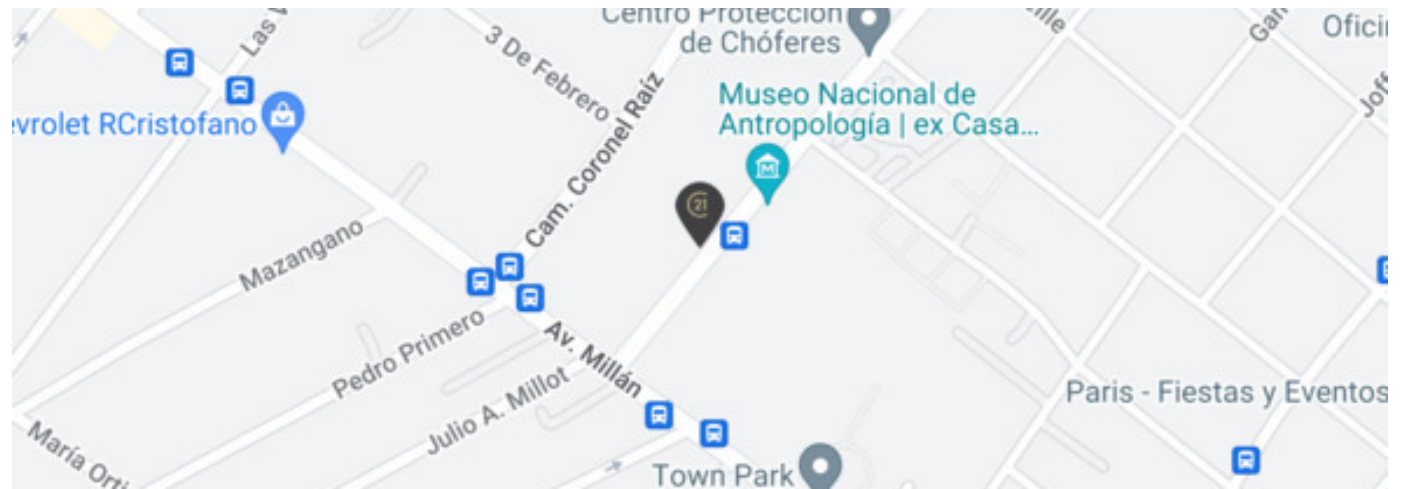

Three of the four apartments are rented with good profitability.
