Description

"Beautiful 360-hectare Farm Club where you can buy your lot or house and choose this dream place designed for enjoyment. Horseback riding in the nature reserve, kayaking in the stream or playing tennis are some of the activities that the owners and friends enjoy it so much".

This beautiful private neighborhood is located near La Barra and the most popular beaches on the Esteña Coast. It is characterized by being one of the most consolidated neighborhoods in the area, with 80% of the lots sold, many houses built and having 65% of the total surface area allocated to green and common spaces that includes a private nature reserve of 165 ha, with 2km of coastline on the Maldonado stream.

The beauty of the landscape with cutwaters, lagoons, ravines and native mountains makes it an ideal place to live and enjoy nature to the fullest.

Among other services provided by the country are: two access points with 24-hour security, club house with restaurant and grills, swimming pool with children's areas, tennis and paddle tennis court, gym, equestrian area and guest house. El Quijote consists of a total of 360 hectares full of life and nature.
